

EARLY MEDIEVAL WALES ARCHAEOLOGY RESEARCH GROUP COLLOQUIUM

Recent Research and Excavation in Wales

Saturday 21st & Sunday 22nd September 2019
Mariners Hotel, Haverfordwest, Pembrokeshire SA61 2DU

Cost: £50 (Students £35)

To include refreshments, packed lunch (Saturday only) and book launch.

Field trip (Saturday pm) £20

Three-course conference dinner £26.50

To register: Please send a cheque made out to Nancy Edwards (EMWARG) to Professor Nancy Edwards, School of History, Philosophy and Social Sciences, Bangor University, Bangor, LL57 2DG.

Closing date Friday 6th September 2019

Please contact Marion Shiner with any queries – mrshiner1@sheffield.ac.uk

Saturday 21st September

09.00: Registration

09.20: Welcome

09.30: Keynote: Jacky Nowakowski 'Researching Tintagel, Dumnonia and post-Roman Britain'

10.30: Coffee

11.00: Paul Belford 'Recent work on Offa's and Wat's Dykes in Wrexham'

11.30: Keith Ray 'Offa's Dyke north of Treuddyn, Flintshire: Reconsidering the Gwynedd/ Mercia frontier in North-East Wales'

12.00: Chris Caple 'Traces of an Earlier Welsh Culture in an Anglo-Norman World – Evidence from Nevern Castle'

13.00 – 18.00: Field trip (packed lunch provided). Suitable clothing and footwear necessary.

Taking in St Dogwells Church ogham and Latin inscribed stone and newly noted cross-carved stone; Garn Turne ('Three Lords Stone') meeting point of 4 cantrefi; Crugiau Cemais Bronze Age barrows with later burials with assembly site?; Caer Bayvil early medieval cemetery in an older enclosure with Bayfil Fair/assembly site nearby; Nevern Church, cross and inscribed stones; Nevern Castle. Led by Rhiannon Comeau, Chris Caple, Nancy Edwards, Heather James.

19.00: Reception to launch Living off the Land (eds) Rhiannon Comeau and Andy Seaman (Oxbow Books)

Sunday 22nd September

9.30: Andy Seaman, Tudor Davies and Stephen Rippon 'Manifestations of Empire: Palaeoenvironmental Analysis and the End of Roman Britain: Preliminary Results and Interpretations'

10.00: Marion Shiner 'Shared Spaces: Identifying Potential 'Cemetery Settlements' in Early Medieval Wales

10.30: Coffee

11.00: David Parsons 'Dating place-names in llan'

11.30: Keynote: Adrián Maldonado 'Iona at the Millennium: new insights on the monastery in the Viking Age'

12.30: Marion Shiner 'A brief introduction to the latest excavations at St Patrick's Chapel'

12.45: Depart for visit to current excavations at St Patrick's Chapel, Whitesands Bay, St Davids (in cars)

Speakers: Ken Murphy, Marion Shiner. Suitable clothing and footwear necessary.

CYMDEITHAS DDYSGEDIG CYMRU
THE LEARNED SOCIETY OF WALES

